Privacy On Demand! Elmont Glass Introduces Switchable Glass

January, 2008; New York: Adding to their impressive line of services, Elmont Glass Company has become one of the leading suppliers of liquid-crystal switchable glass in the United States.

A marvel for the home or office, this state-of-the-art technology offers privacy on demand, as glass switches from clear to opaque with the click of a button. It's privacy the instant you want it. Switchable glass can also act as a projection screen for storefronts and showrooms.

Liquid Crystal is a state-of-the-art technology that offers instant privacy for an array of situations, including conference rooms and offices. "The uses for this glass are unlimited, we have recently installed switchable glass for a yacht." Glen Greenberg, President of Elmont Glass, said.

Recent achievements for EGS in the switchable glass market are the John Lennon Educational Tour Bus that will make its debut in 2008, traveling across the country. In addition, Elmont Glass is installing the switchable glass product for Lockheed Martin in Virginia, the second largest order in the company's history.

ABOUT ELMONT GLASS COMPANY: Started in 1949, Elmont Glass Company has been servicing the New York Metropolitan area and Long Island for all their glass services needs. Elmont Glass Company manufactures and installs glass, metals, and plastics.
